Introduction

Steel is the basic building block of an economy. The consumption of steel is a barometer to how developed a nation is or how much infrastructure has been developed. India ranks 2nd in production in the world however as far as consumption is concerned India ranks at an abysmal Low...position. India has strategic advantages such as rich reserves of iron ore, reserves of coal, cheap labour, vibrant economy and locational advantage. What is required is the intent and will to come together, proper policy framework, create awareness about steel and determination to move forward together in synchronisation.

ABOUT SUFI

Steel users federation of India –SUFI has been in forefront of bringing together various steel stake holders onto a common platform. The objective is to bring about efficiency and excellence in steel sector.

The stake holders cannot operate in isolation and are inter dependent and it is about time that all come together and make real the dream of Better India.

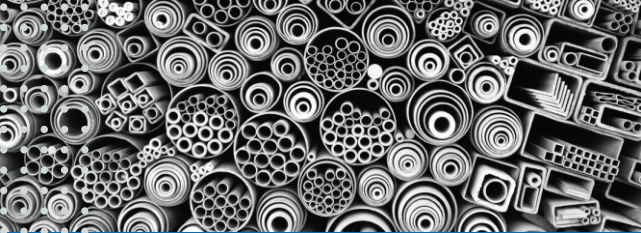

Excellence is a continuous process and not an accident.

- A P J Abdul Kalam

Developed India..... A New India.

Since last 2 years SUFI has taken steps in this direction by holding Conferences and Summits both nationally and internationally. The underlying objective is to create awareness about steel consumption in India .SUFI also came out with a one of its kind book on GST viz. GST –DECODED FOR STEEL and followed it up with supplement 1 incorporating amendments unto 21st December 2017 and supplement 2 called E-WAY BILL special .SUFI has been regularly making representation to the policy makers on variety of subjects be it GST,BIS regulations, withdrawal of LOC/LOU, Eastern water front development, IBC regulations, Negotiable instruments Act to name a few. The underlying principle being to be a bridge between trade/industry and the government.
